ORDER

This is an Application under Section 86(1) read with Section 82 of the Representation of People Act, 1951. By the present Application, the original Respondent No. 1 in the Election Petition No. 2 of 1999 has raised a preliminary objection as regards the non-compliance of Section 82(b) of the said Act on the ground of non-joinder of Shri Luis Alex Cardozo, who was the candidate for the election and against whom the allegations of corrupt practice have been made in the Election Petition. The Election Petition relates to the challenge of the election of the Applicant on 26-7-1999 as returned candidate for Rajya Sabha from Goa.

2. It is the case of the Applicant that the pleadings in the Election Petition disclose averments regarding corrupt practice being committed by the Applicant and his agents by offering and promising Cabinet berth to some of the 8 dissident M.L.As. of Congress Party and appointment on other important Public Offices to the remaining of them as also to one Independent M.L.A. with the direct object of inducing the said dissident Congress M.L.As. and the Independent M.L.A. to vote for the Applicant and that the said 8 dissident Congress M.L.As. and one Independent M.L.A. in agreement to receive the said gratification voted for the Applicant at the said election and that the said corrupt practice had been committed on 25-7-1999, the process of which had started from 17-7-1999. The said eight dissident Congress M.L.As. have been identified in the Petition with their names and they include Luis Alex Cardozo.

3. The contention of the Applicant is that the provisions contained in Section 82(b) in clear and peremptory terms require the election petitioner to join as the respondent to his Petition a candidate against whom allegations of any corrupt practice are made in Petition irrespective of the fact that the candidate has withdrawn his candidature subsequently and that, therefore, failure to comply with the said mandate inevitably attracts the penalty under Section 86 which requires the High Court to dismiss the election petition which does not comply with the provisions of Section 82 of the said Act. It is further the contention of the Applicant that Shri Luis Cardozo alias Luis Alex Cardozo, was a candidate duly nominated for the election, and applying the law laid down by the Apex Court in various decisions, even after the withdrawal of his candidature, continued to be candidate for the purpose of Section 82(b) of the said Act and since allegations of corrupt practices having been made against him in the petition, he is a necessary party to the Petition and the Opponent/Original Petitioner having not joined him as the party to the Petition, the same is liable to be dismissed in limine.

4. In reply, the Opponent/Original Petition has admitted that there are no allegations of any corrupt practice having been made against the said Shri Luis Alex Cardozo, he is not required to be impleaded as the party to the Petition. According to the Opponent, the pleadings in Para 30 of the Election Petition to which a reference is made in the Application filed by the Applicant for dismissal of the Petition do not constitute allegations of corrupt practice having been committed by the said Shri Luis Cardozo within the meaning of Section 123 of the said Act. Being so, the said Luis Alex Cardozo is not a necessary party to the petition and hence the petition cannot be rejected for non-joinder of the said person.

5. In para 3 of the Election Petition it has been stated that on 17-7-1999, Shri Luis Alex Cardozo (Dummy Candidate) withdrew his nomination papers and, therefore, the Applicant and Opponent herein were declared as contesting candidates. Initially, when the Petition was filed, the name of the candidate who had withdrawn his nomination was disclosed as Mr. Luis Cardozo; however, pursuant to the application for better particulars filed by the Applicant herein, it was clarified by the Opponent that the person referred to as Luis Cardozo in Para 3 of the Petition as also the person referred to as Luis Alex Cardozo in para 3 is one and the same person.

6. In Para 29 of the Election Petition, it has been stated that the Applicant herein is also guilty of adopting corrupt practice by using undue influence, since the Applicant has directly and also indirectly caused interference with free exercise of electoral rights of 8 dissident Congress M.L.As, who were directed to cast their vote by putting their mark on the ballot paper as directed by the Applicant so that at the time of counting of votes, the identification may be found as to whether the particular M.L.A. has voted as per the instructions given by the Applicant or not, and this has forced the dissident Congress M.L.As, to cast their votes in the particular manner as directed by the Applicant and in fact, the Applicant and his counting agent Shri Ramesh Chennithala, who were responsible for directing the dissident M.L.As to cast their votes in favour of the Applicant, inspected each and every ballot paper at the time of counting of votes so that it could be ascertained whether an M. L.A. had not voted in the manner directed by the Applicant and his agent Ramesh Chennithala. It is further stated that had there been no such undue influence exercised by the Applicant and his agent during the course of election, eight Congress M.L.As. and one Independent M.L.A. would have exercised their electoral rights according to their own choice and conscience and those 9 votes would have been held in favour of the Opponent herein since those M.L.As were at loggerheads with the Chief Minister and the Congress Party and would not have voted for the Congress candidate but for the attraction of the Cabinet berth and other pivotal positions and in such a situation, the total number of votes polled in favour of the Opponent herein would have been 25 (12 votes already polled in favour of the Opponent plus 8 votes of dissidents, 1 independent and 4 votes of M.G.P. candidates).

7. In the paragraphs preceding to Para 29 and right from Para 13 onwards the Opponent has referred to various news items stated to be disclosing the allegations of corrupt practices.

8. In para 30 of the Election Petition it has been clarified that the corrupt practice committed by the Applicant and his agents was in the form of offering and promising of cabinet berths to some of the 8 dissident M.L.As. of Congress Party and appointment on other important public offices to the remaining of them as also to one Independent M.L.A. and they are identified as Shri Subash Shirodkar, Shri Somnath Zuwalkar, Shri Sanjay Bandekar, Smt. Victoria Fernandes, Shri Luis Alex Cardozo, Shri Jose Philip D'Souza, Shri Mauvino Godinho, Shri Babu Azgaonkar, and Shri Isidore Luis Fernandes (Independent), that the said corrupt practice has been committed with the consent of the respondent and is a gratification with the direct object of inducing the said 8 dissident Congress M.L.As. and one Independent M.L.A. to vote for respondent, and that the said 8 dissident Congress M.L.As. and one Independent M.L.A. in agreement to receive the said gratification voted for the said respondent at the said election.

9. The Opponent has further stated in Para 29 that the Applicant herein is guilty of adopting corrupt practice as defined under Section 123 (1)(A)(b) (ii), 123 (1) (B)(b) and also under section 123 (2) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, and in Para 30(A) that the Applicant has committed the Corrupt practice as contemplated under Section 123 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951. In Clause (H) of Para 30 it has been stated that the corrupt practice has been committed namely of exercising undue influence that is to say, direct interference with the free exercise of the electoral rights of the 8 dissident Congress M.L.As, 4 M.G.P. M.L.As, and 1 Independent M.L.A., thus amounting to corrupt practice of undue influence within the meaning of Section 123(2) of the said Act.

10. Considering the pleadings in the Election Petition as a whole, there are no material facts disclosed details about the use of any undue influence over any of the M.L.As. to vote in favour of the Applicant herein. However, the pleadings in the Petition certainly disclosed the allegation of corrupt practice being adopted by the Applicant herein within the meaning of the said expression under Section 123 of the said Act. It has been specifically averred by the Opponent in the Election Petition that the corrupt practice has been committed by the Applicant and his agent by offering and promising Cabinet berths and appointment on other public offices to the M.L.As. which included Shri Luis Alex Cardozo. It has also been stated in the Election Petition that the eight dissident Congress M.L.As. which included the said Luis Alex Cardozo, in agreement to receive the gratification, voted for the Applicant herein at the said election and ultimately, the Applicant got elected to Rajya Sabha.

11. Section 123 (1)(B) of the said Act clearly provides thus:—

"123. Corrupt practices.—

The following shall be deemed to be corrupt practices for the purposes of this Act:—

(1) "Bribery ", that is to say —

- (A) ... ..
- (B) the receipt of, or agreement to receive, any gratification, whether as a notice or a reward—
  - (a) ... ..
  - (b) by any person whomsoever for himself or any other person for voting or refraining from voting, or inducing or attempting to induce any elector to vote or refrain from voting, or any candidate to withdraw or not to withdraw his candidature.

Explanation. — For the purpose of this clause the term "gratification" is not restricted to pecuniary gratification or gratifications estimable in money and it includes all forms of entertainment and all forms of employment for reward but it does not include the payment of any expenses bona fide incurred at, or for the purpose of, any election and duly entered in the account of election expenses referred to in Section 78."

On plain reading of the above provision contained in Section 123(1)(B) it is clear that receipt of or agreement to receive any type of gratification in order to vote for a candidate would amount to bribery, i.e. "corrupt practices" for the purpose of the said Act. The term "gratification" has not been defined in the said Act but the Explanation clause to the said Section discloses wide meaning of the said expression. It has been amply clarified by the said Explanation clause that the gratification need not be only a pecuniary gratification nor it be a gratification which necessarily can be valued in terms of money. It will include all forms of reward. Clause (B) of the said Section 123(1) of the said Act further discloses that gratification might not have been a fait accompli prior to the voting and even agreement for any gratification can amount to corrupt practices within the meaning of the said expression under the said Act.

12. Considering the pleadings in the Election Petition it is apparent that the Opponent has clearly pleaded that the vote of Luis Alex Cardozo, M.L.A., was secured by the Applicant herein by offering and promising him a Cabinet berth or an appointment on other important public office and, in fact, the said M.L.A. voted for the Applicant in agreement to receive the said gratification. The corrupt practices alleged against the Applicant in relation to Shri Luis Alex Cardozo are, therefore in the nature of agreement for gratification and consequential voting for the Applicant by the said Luis Alex Cardozo at the election held on 26-7-1999 wherein the Applicant herein was declared as Returned Candidate. The contention of the Opponent herein that there are no allegations of any corrupt practice against the said Luis Alex Cardozo in the Petition is, therefore, devoid of substance.

13. Reliance was sought to be placed by Shri V. P. Thali, learned Advocate appearing for the Opponent, in the decision of the Apex Court in the matter of Daulat Ram Chauhan V., Anand Sharma, reported in 1984(2) SCC 64 in support of his contention that before Section 82(b) of the said Act could be pressed into service for dismissal of the petition, it must be proved whether or not the allegation of corrupt practices made against the candidate amounted to corrupt practices as contemplated under the provisions of Section 123 of the Act. That was a case where the election petition did not disclose clear and specific allegations against two of the withdrawn candidates. The decision is clearly distinguishable on facts.

14. It is not in dispute that the said Luis Alex Cardozo was a candidate for election and he had withdrawn his candidature on 17-7-1999. Nonetheless, considering the decision of the Apex Court in the matter of Ram Pratap Chandal V. Chaudhury Lajja Ram, reported in 1998(8) SCC 564, the said Luis Alex Cardozo was required to be joined as a party to the election petition in terms of the provisions contained in Section 82(b) of the said Act and on account of failure of the Opponent to join the said Luis Alex Cardozo as party to the Petition inspite of allegation of corrupt practices against him, the Petition is liable to be dismissed for non-compliance of mandatory provisions contained in Section 82(b) of the said Act. The judicial pronouncement in that regard if any required, then one can safely refer to the decision of the Apex Court in the matter of Udhav Singh V. Madhav Rao Scindia, reported in AIR 1976 SC 744.

15. In the result, the Application filed by the Applicant raising preliminary objections regarding the non-maintainability of the Election Petition is allowed and the Election Petition filed by the Opponent challenging the election of the Applicant is hereby dismissed as being non-maintainable, in terms of the provisions contained in Section 86(1) read with Section 82 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, with costs.

(R. M. S. KHANDEPARKAR).
Judge.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF INDIA CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

Civil Appeal No. 3224 of 2000

Gadnis Bhawani Shankar, V. .... Appellant

Versus

Faleiro Eduardo Martinho ..... Respondent

JUDGEMENT

Would the provisions of section 82(b) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 get attracted to a candidate who allegedly commits a corrupt practice, after the withdrawal of his candidature, as a voter, is the meaningful question requiring our consideration in this appeal?

The appellant was a candidate for Rajya Sabha elections for one seat from Goa in the year 1999. There were three candidates in the fray. Apart from the appellant and respondent, there was another candidate - Luis Alex Cardozo. All the three candidates had filed their nomination papers, which were accepted. After the acceptance of his nomination paper, Luis Alex Cardozo withdrew from the contest on 17th July, 1999. In the contest held thereafter, respondent was declared elected.

The appellant filed an election petition, challenging the election of respondent, principally on the ground of commission of corrupt practices. In the election petition, respondent alone was arrayed as a party-respondent. After service of notice, respondent raised a preliminary objection by filing an application under Section 86 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Act'). It was averred that election petition was liable to be dismissed for non-compliance with the requirements of Section 82 of the Act. The preliminary objection was upheld and election petition was dismissed. Hence, this appeal.

Section 82(b) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 provides:

"82 - A petitioner shall join as respondents to his petition —

a) .....

(b) any other candidate against whom allegations of any corrupt practice are made in the petition."

Section 86, which deals with trial of election petitions, provides in sub-clause (1) as follows:

"86(1) The High Court shall dismiss an election petition which does not comply with the provisions of section 81 or section 82 or section 117.

Explanation :— An order of the High Court dismissing an election petition under this sub-section shall be deemed to be an order made under clause (a) of section 98."

In the instant case, Luis Alex Cardozo withdrew his nomination on 17th July, 1999. Election took place on 26th July, 1999. In the election petition, apart from various other allegations against the respondent, two allegations contained in paragraphs 30-D(ii) and 30-G alone are relevant for purposes of our discussion. Those paragraphs read thus:

"30-D — The corrupt practice committed by the respondent and his agents is as follows:

- i) ... ..
- ii) — Offering and promising of cabinet berths to some of the 8 dissident MLAs of Congress party and appointment on other important public offices to the remaining of them as also to one independent MLA who are namely Shri Subash Shirodkar, Shri Somnath Zuwarkar, Shri Sanjay Bandekar, Smt. Victoria Fernandes, Shri Luis Alex Cardozo, Shri Jose Philip D'Souza, Shri Mauvino Godinho, Shri Babu Azgaonkar and Shri Isidoro Luis Fernandes (Independent).

G — The said 8 dissident Congress MLAs and one independent MLA in agreement to receive the said gratification voted for the respondent at the said election."

The allegations, in a nutshell, contained in these two paragraphs are concerned, are to the effect that after withdrawal of his candidature, Cardozo agreed to receive gratification along with some other MLAs as a motive or reward to vote for respondent. Acceptance of or agreement to receive gratification as a motive or reward to vote at the election is a corrupt practice dealt with in Section 123-(1) (B) of the Act which provides:

"123 — Corrupt practices:

The following shall be deemed to be corrupt practices for the purposes of this Act:—

- (1) "Bribery", that is to say-
  - (A) ... ..
  - (B) The receipt of, or agreement to receive, any gratification, whether as a motive or a reward-
- (a) by a person for standing or not standing, as, or for withdrawing or not withdrawing from being, a candidate; or

- (b) by any person whomsoever for himself or any other person for voting or refraining from voting, or inducing or attempting to induce any elector to vote or refrain from voting, or any candidate to withdraw or not to withdraw his candidature.

Explanation:— For the purposes of this clause the term "gratification" is not restricted to pecuniary gratifications or gratifications estimable in money and it includes all forms of entertainment and all forms of employment for reward but it does not include the payment of any expenses bona fide incurred at, or for the purpose of, any election and duly entered in the account of election expenses referred to in section 78."

A Plain reading of the above provision shows that the receipt of, or agreement to receive, any gratification, as a motive or reward by any person whomsoever for himself or any other person for voting or refraining from voting, or inducing or attempting to induce any elector to vote or refrain from voting, or any candidate to withdraw or not to withdraw his candidature would amount to commission of a corrupt practice. The averments noticed in paragraphs 30-D(ii) and 30-G of the election petition (Supra) contain allegations against Cardozo that he agreed to receive gratification as a motive or reward for voting in favour of the respondent. These averments would amount to allegations of commission of corrupt practice by Cardozo within the meaning of section 123(1)(B) of the Act.

The argument of Mr. Krishnamani, learned senior counsel appearing for the appellant, however, is that since Cardozo had withdrawn from the contest, he could not be treated as a 'candidate', who was necessarily required to be impleaded as a party-respondent under section 82 (b) of the Act and if the corrupt practice was committed by him as a voter only, he was not required to be impleaded as a party respondent in the election petition. This argument does not appeal to us. Section 79(b) of the Act defines a 'candidate' to mean a person who has been or claims to have been duly nominated as a candidate at any election. There is no dispute that Cardozo had been duly nominated as a candidate at the election in question. A similar argument as raised by Mr. Krishnamani came up for consideration in Har Swarup & Anr. Vs. Brij Bhushan Saran & Others (1967 (1) SCR 342).

Wanchoo, J. speaking for a three judge Bench opined:-

"But the argument is that as the alleged corrupt practice was committed after the date of his withdrawal he would not be a candidate within the meaning of s. 82(b). We are of opinion that if the effect of withdrawal is said to be that a person nominated can no longer be considered to be a candidate only after his withdrawal, the date of withdrawal cannot be a dividing line as to the time upto which he can be treated as a candidate and the time after which he cannot be treated as a candidate. If purity of elections has to be maintained a person who is a candidate as defined in s. 79 (b) the Act will remain a candidate even after he withdraws till the election is over, and if he commits a corrupt practice whether before or after his withdrawal he would be a necessary party under s. 82 (b) of the Act."

(Emphasis ours)

In Ram Pratap Chandel Vs. Chaudhary Lajja Ram and Others (1998 (8) SCC 564), the requirements of Section 82 of the Representation of the People Act were dealt with and the Bench held opined that a candidate against whom a charge of corrupt practice had been made in the election petition, was required to be joined as a party to the election petition, irrespective of the fact whether he had withdrawn his candidature and not contested the election as such and had committed the corrupt practice after his withdrawal.

The Bench in Ram Pratap Chandel's case considered the judgment in Mohan Raj Vs. Surendra Kumar Taparia & Ors. 1969 (1) SCR 630, which has been pressed into aid by Mr. Krishnamani before us distinguished it in the following words:-

"Lastly, it is submitted that Periwai was being charged in his character as an election agent and not as a candidate. This submission runs counter to the amendment petition which says that he was not an election agent and therefore, he was really charged in his capacity as an individual and as he was a duly nominated candidate he had to be joined. The argument really contradicts the last amendment petition and cannot be entertained.

He submitted that the allegations of corrupt practice made against a person who, though he had been a candidate, had withdrawn in his capacity as the election agent of another candidate, did not necessitate his impleadment and this question had been left open in the aforesaid judgment. It is difficult to agree. By reason of the contradiction, the argument was not entertained. But it is clear from what was stated therein above that a candidate who is duly nominated continues to be a candidate for the purposes of Section 82 (b) inspite of his withdrawal and, if allegations of corrupt practice are made against him, he must be impleaded as a party to the election petition or the election petition must fail."

(Emphasis ours)

We are in complete agreement with the exposition of law, as made above.

In our opinion, the allegations which have been made in the election petition are allegations of corrupt practice against Cardozo besides some others. Since, Cardozo was a nominated candidate, it was necessary to implead him as a party-respondent under Section 82(b) of the Act, irrespective of the fact that before the actual date of election, he had withdrawn his candidature and allegedly committed the corrupt practice after his withdrawal from the election. Thus, the answer to the question posed in the earlier part of the judgment is in the affirmative.

The learned Single Judge of the High Court committed no error in dismissing the election petition for non-compliance with the provisions of Section 82(b) of the Act. The appeal has no merits. It fails and is dismissed. Parties to bear their own costs.
